From

To

H. V. Nanjundayya Esquire, M.A. M.L.
Secretary to the Govt of Mysore
General and Revenue Depts

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith for favourable consideration and early orders a petition from the officials of the various Departments of the District office praying that they may be granted an advance of two months' pay up to a maximum of Rs 50/, repayable in 6 monthly instalments, to enable them to build sheds to evacuate their houses in the town of Chikmagalur, which has recently been declared to be plague infected.

2 The G. O. No 1144-53 Rj: dated 6th February 1899 authorizes the Deputy Commissioners to make advances of one months pay in such cases, subject to a maximum of Rs 30/, repayable in 3 monthly instalments. The officials represent that the above sum will be quite insufficient, as the sheds to be erected in this malnad place ought to be

be pretty strong, so as to protect them from the severity of the present mountain weather.

3. I am of opinion that the above representation deserves to be favorably considered by Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Respected Sir,

Applⁿ wrongly made to Govt for favorable consideration & orders.
22/7/02

The Outbreak of Plague in this Town has necessitated the urgency to Camp out.

200

Such of the non-official classes who owned Estates &c have already made themselves their Solitary lodgings.

The Officials have no other go but to erect Sheds of their own out of the Town; for this purpose We beg the favor of your honors granting us an advance of two months pay to be recovered in Six monthly instalments, to meet the Cost of erection.

We beg also to be granted Concession in obtaining bamboos from the Depot.

G. O. No. 1144-53 d/ 6th Feby/99 authorises the disbursement of one months' pay subject to a maximum of Rs 30/-; but this being inadequate the Sheds ought to be sufficiently strong to resist the severity of the weather and in that consideration our prayer for two months' pay - may be granted subject to a maximum of Rupees fifty.

We beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
